

UNICEF High School Club Member Position Description

UNICEF High School Club members are an integral part of a vast network of volunteers across the United States that increases awareness about global humanitarian issues, advocates on behalf of UNICEF, and raises or leverages funds for the US Fund for UNICEF. Students wishing to pursue a leadership or member position with the UNICEF High School Club should be prepared to make this role an important extracurricular priority. UNICEF High School Club membership position requires a commitment of time and energy to both individual work and productive collaboration. This position offers student leaders a unique and exciting opportunity to shape the course of their club while gaining valuable experience about UNICEF and global humanitarian affairs.

UNICEF High School Club membership responsibilities:

- Help to plan and implement education, advocacy, and fundraising activities at your school and in your community on behalf of UNICEF.
- Use the Online Volunteer Center to post events on the Calendar of Events. Use the available downloadable resources.
- Maintain political impartiality on issues when representing UNICEF and, when asked, participate in UNICEF-sponsored public policy concerns.
- Attend and actively participate in weekly (or biweekly) membership meetings and, if applicable, participate in leadership committees.
- On occasion, UNICEF High School Club members may be asked to participate in local volunteer opportunities, trainings, and other special events.

Qualifications:

- Members should be motivated to improve the experience of the world's children.
- Members should exhibit strong leadership skills or potential and should be able to take initiative on a number of projects.
- Excellent communication skills are a must. Individuals should feel comfortable speaking in front of a group of peers and possess skills in group facilitation.

For more information, please email highschoolclubs@unicefusa.org.